

2018 KOCH INSTITUTE IMAGE AWARDS

NOW ACCEPTING SUBMISSIONS

The Koch Institute's annual Image Awards exhibition recognizes the extraordinary visuals produced by life sciences and biomedical engineering research at MIT.

All MIT students, faculty, and staff are eligible to submit images, as are MIT-affiliated collaborators.

Submissions must be generated through contributors' original research being conducted in (or in collaboration with) MIT laboratories.

Email high resolution images and accompanying information form(s) to kigalleries@mit.edu
